- Will actively work in and manage the business
- Have the funds to invest in the business, as well as the financial ability to survive the start-up phase
- Have the ability to get started within 60 days

Learn more about Senorita Margarita distributor opportunities

Discover if a Senorita Margarita distributorship is the right opportunity for you. The "Mutual Investigation Process" allows for an exchange of information that will better assist you in making your decision to become a Senorita Margarita distributor. During this process, you will be required to provide information for us to evaluate your potential as a Senorita Margarita distributor. At the same time, you will receive information from us about the opportunity. This will help you decide if you wish to move forward at each stage of the application process outlined below:

Step 1. Initial enquiry

The first step is to thoroughly read all information on our website. This will help you understand the business. If you are still interested in pursuing a Senorita Margarita distributorship, email us at info@senoritamargarita.ca and we will start the application process.

We will contact you to:

- Explain the total level of investment and minimum cash requirement
- Determine your preferred territory
- Discuss your time frame to opening
- Explain our Request for Information and Consideration Form

Step 2. Distributor Application

Once you have confirmed an interest in becoming a Senorita Margarita distributor and are satisfied that you can meet the financial obligations, we will forward to you a Request for Information and Consideration Form to you. Then complete and forward to our Corporate Office for our review.

Step 3. The meeting

We will review your Request for Information and Consideration Form within 5 business days. If you are qualified, your application will move forward in the award process. We will arrange a meeting, at which time you will be required to execute a Confidentiality/Non-Disclosure Agreement, prior to being provided with more in-depth information.

Step 4. Offer to purchase agreement

Should we mutually decide to proceed, the next step is for you to execute our standard form of Offer to Purchase Agreement and pay a deposit of $5,000. This amount is fully refundable. At this time, we will provide you with a copy of our Distributor Agreement.

Step 5. Review the documentation

Once the Offer to Purchase Agreement has been executed and the deposit has been paid, you will have 15 days to:

Review the Distributor Agreement with us so that you have a clear understanding of what it involves.

Have the documentation reviewed by your attorney.

Execute the Distributor Agreement and pay the balance of the purchase (plus GST)

If during this 15-day period, you decide not to proceed with the opportunity or we elect not to proceed with your application, your entire deposit will be returned to you without delay.

Step 6. Training program

Congratulations! Prepare to attend our 5-day training program.

Step 7. Start your business

Commence your business as a Senorita Margarita distributor.
